

Republic Bank Digital Privacy Statement

This Privacy Statement ensures the privacy of your information on republictt.com.

You're not required to provide any personal information on the public areas of this website. However, you may choose to do so by completing the relevant forms on the various pages of the site. We'll only use the information you provide to us on these pages in order to process the relevant form. Please see the privacy wording on the relevant form for a more detailed explanation of how your information will be used.

Customers

We are committed to protecting your privacy and personal information. We will use your personal information for a number of different purposes, for example:

- 1) To provide our services to you and others and
- 2) To meet our legal and regulatory obligations.

If you're an existing customer, please click here for our updated privacy policy which provides more details on the type of information we collect about you, how we use your information, and who we may share it with.

Online services

Information _____ we _____ collect

If you register to use our secure services, such as online banking, we'll ask you to provide some personal information for security, identification and verification purposes. Please see the privacy wording on the relevant form for a more detailed explanation of how your information will be used. Where you provide information about others (for example, for joint accounts or if you are 'recommending a friend') you must ensure that you have their consent or are otherwise entitled to provide this information to us.

Use of cookies

What is a 'cookie'?

A cookie is a small text file placed on your computer's hard drive by our web page server which we can later access. They are frequently used on websites, and you can choose if and how your computer accepts them by configuring your preferences and options in your browser.

How we use cookies

Cookies are used so that we can improve our websites and learn how to provide a better and more customised service for you. We use them as follows:

We allocate a cookie to your internet browser if you visit any of our websites (including if you visit an unsecured area – such as one which does not require you to log on to the relevant page). The cookie allows us to:

- determine if you have previously visited our website
- identify pages you have accessed and third-party websites you have visited

How to contact us

We can be contacted at the numbers listed on our contact page on republictt.com.
